Univision Bay Area
Latino Role Model
October 11th, 2015
Univision Bay Area in partnership with The Mexican Consulate in San Jose and Santa Clara University is hosting the “Latino Role Model” forum for 500 High School Latino students and their families to inspire, engage, and empower participants to continue their academic careers and ponder all of their possibilities.
Event description

Event on October 11th from 8:30 am to 1 pm at the Santa Clara University.
General event agenda:
• 9 to 10 am greeting, refreshments, and resource tables available
• 10 to noon – Forum
• 12 to 1 pm resource tables available

Resources  A mini-resource fair will be available at the entrance of the auditoriums for parents and students to access relevant information on academic and financial preparedness, career opportunities including STEM, and scholarships.

Forum  Participants will enjoy 4 presentations from successful Latinos on their journey, approach to challenges and their amazing paths to success.

Partners & Sponsors

Partners for the mini-resource fair will be on-site to provide information, explain challenges and facilitate resources.

Sponsors could also be on-site and support Univision’s multi-platform promotional campaign, facilitate students transportation, and provide giveaways for participants.